

OXFAM
Ireland

Who we are & what we do

Oxfam is a global movement of people who won't live with the injustice of poverty. Together we save lives and rebuild communities when disaster strikes. We help people build better lives for themselves. We speak out on the big issues that keep people poor, like inequality and discrimination against women.

Role Title	Volunteer Campaigner
Overview of Role	Campaigning is at the heart of everything we do at Oxfam. By joining us a volunteer campaigner, you'll be part of our movement for change - fighting to end inequality and beat poverty, as well as ensuring the right to refuge for the millions of people displaced around the world.
Key Tasks	You choose which actions that you want to take part in. Actions vary, in size and time commitment but include the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- Sharing an action on social media, or taking part in a Twitter storm</li><li>- Talking to politicians about issues that matter to you - urging them to make decisions that benefit those living in poverty</li><li>- Taking part in Oxfam photo stunts and campaign launches (these predominantly happen in Belfast or Dublin)</li><li>- Attending festivals as a member of the campaigns team, this involves engaging with members of the public at festivals and events around Ireland - inspiring them to take action.</li></ul>
Location	The majority of actions can be done digitally, so your location can be anywhere in Ireland. Offline actions take place at various locations in Ireland – predominantly within the proximity of Dublin & Belfast.
Commitment	You decide your commitment and what actions you'd like to take!  Actions vary greatly, from spending 30 seconds on your phone to post on social media, to becoming a member of our festivals team and spending 3 days with us at a music festival.
